To Whom It May Concern,

Our relationship with Fly Me High

Network Financial Services Limited (“NFS”), as the Financial Advice Provider (FAP), has an existing agreement in place to purchase insurance leads and enquiries from Fly Me High Limited (John McCarthy - owner, and Iryna Denysova – employee).

It is a legal requirement for NFS, as the FAP, to engage registered Financial Advisers, (also referred to as Financial Service Providers (FSP), to provide regulated financial advice to retail clients/ or the end user.

For a full list of Financial Advisers that are currently engaged by NFS please refer to the link below:
<https://fsp-app.companiesoffice.govt.nz/orp-fsp-register/viewInstance/view.html?id=757b371f1b6eec44bad4008937136b8fc346356d1f38e162&timestamp=12677284562760958>

NFS, as the FAP, currently has agency agreements in place with the following insurance providers, which in turn allows each of the registered FSPs they engage to provide regulated financial advice:

- Accuro
- AIA
- Asteron
- Cigna
- Partners Life

Nature and scope of the advice our Financial Advisers can provide:

Our Financial Advisers only provide financial advice relating to the following insurances:

Personal Insurance

- Life Insurance
- Total Permanent Disability Insurance
- Trauma/ Critical Illness Insurance
- Income Protection Insurance
- Monthly Mortgage Repayment Insurance
- Redundancy Cover
- Accidental Injury Cover (AIA Only)

Business Insurance

- Start-up income protection
- Business continuity
- Business life cover, trauma & TPD
- Workplace insurance
- ACC restructuring

Health Insurance

- Hospital plan
- Hospital, specialist & diagnostics
- Group medical scheme
- Cancer benefit (AIA Only)

I can confirm that Fly Me High currently charges NFS $59 plus GST for each qualified lead/ enquiry.

I can be contacted on +64 22 045 6497 or at pierre@networkfs.co.nz to verify this agreement NFS has with Fly Me High and the insurance companies we currently have agency agreement in place with.

Yours,
